Indigo Acquisition Corp. Announces Separate Trading of its Ordinary Shares and Rights

NEW YORK, July 18, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Indigo Acquisition Corp. (NASDAQ: INACU) (the "Company") announced today that, commencing on or about July 30, 2025, holders of its units sold in the Company's initial public offering may elect to separately trade the Company's ordinary shares and rights included in the units. The ordinary shares and rights that are separated will trade on the Nasdaq Global Market ("Nasdaq") under the symbols "INAC" and "INACR," respectively. No fractional rights will be issued upon separation of the units and only whole rights will trade. Those units not separated will continue to trade on Nasdaq under the symbol "INACU." Holders of units will need to have their brokers contact Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the Company's transfer agent, in order to separate the units into ordinary shares and rights.

The Company is a Cayman exempt company, formed as a blank check company for the purpose of entering into a merger, share exchange, asset acquisition, share purchase, recapitalization, reorganization or similar business combination with one or more businesses or entities. The Company intends to focus on opportunities with established, profitable companies with attractive market positions and/or growth potential that can leverage our management team's experience and expertise. The Company is led by its Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, James S. Cassel, and its Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, Scott Salpeter.
